

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 21, 2010

Axinn Veltrop & Harkrider LLP Practice Groups, Attorneys Rank Highly in Chambers 2010 USA Release

New York, NY (June 21, 2010) – Axinn, Veltrop & Harkrider LLP, a national law firm with offices in New York, Hartford and Washington D.C., is pleased to announce that six of its partners have been recognized as “Leaders in Their Field” by Chambers USA 2010.

The six partners, representing 32 percent of the total partners in the firm, include:

- Lauren S. Albert – Antitrust – New York
- Stephen Axinn – Antitrust – New York
- John D. Harkrider – Antitrust – New York
- Michael L. Keeley – Antitrust – Washington D.C.
- Francis H. Morrison – Litigation – Connecticut
- Thomas G. Rohback – Litigation – Connecticut

The Chambers Guide is the leading publisher of guides to the legal profession, generating independent rankings and providing editorial commentary. Chambers USA ranks domestic law firms and attorneys considered to be the leaders in their field and has been publishing guides to the legal profession since 1969. Lawyers are ranked in bands from 1-6, with 1 being the best.

“We are proud to be recognized by Chambers as leaders in our field,” said Mr. Axinn, senior partner of the firm. “Chambers employs a rigorous research process that includes interviews and recommendations from our clients and peers, and we are honored that those groups feel we are worthy of being selected.”

About Axinn, Veltrop & Harkrider

AV&H, founded in 1997, offers its clients an unparalleled range of counseling and litigation services in critical areas directly affecting the quality, security and scope of their businesses. Whether in the area of antitrust and trade regulation, intellectual property or complex litigation, the firm is dedicated to providing in all of its relationships an exceptional degree of experience, communication and service, allowing its clients to get back to the business of business.

About Chambers USA

Chambers USA is published annually by 100 full-time researchers who participate in interviews of thousands of lawyers and their clients around the world. They use their findings and expertise to design a guide for clients, this book provides law firm and attorney recommendations throughout the United States. The rankings and editorial comments cited in the book are independent and objective. These guides are known to provide the most accurate information and most reliable advice.