Sandhya Taneja is an associate in Axinn's Antitrust practice group. Her practice focuses on merger analysis, government investigations, civil litigation, and antitrust counseling and compliance.

Sandhya earned her JD from The George Washington University Law School. While there, she served as president of the law school's Antitrust Law Association, worked as a research assistant for Professor William Kovacic, and served as a student attorney at the GW Health Rights Law Clinic.

While in school, Sandhya interned for the Honorable Zuberi Bakari Williams in the Circuit Court for Montgomery County. She also was a Special Prosecutions Division and district court screening intern at the Montgomery County State's Attorney's Office.

After graduating from George Washington, she clerked in the Montgomery County Circuit Court in Maryland with Judge Bibi M. Berry, focusing on family law and civil and criminal jury trials.

Sandhya holds a BA in Economics from the University of Maryland.
