

Events

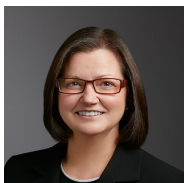

Event

Antitrust Criminal Enforcement – Trends and Recent Developments

When: March 2, 2022

People: Tiffany Rider

Related People

Tiffany Rider

Related Services

Axinn partner Tiffany Rider spoke on a panel entitled, “Antitrust Criminal Enforcement – Trends and Recent Developments” at the 37th National Institute on White Collar Crime conference held from March 2-4 in San Francisco.

Panelists focused on the evolution and application of enforcement policies within the Antitrust Division, the practical implications of those policies within the broader enforcement landscape, and recent developments and new trends under the current leadership of the Division.

Click here for more information.

To subscribe to our publications, click here.