On June 7, Axinn partner James Attridge moderated a panel entitled, “Antitrust Compliance in a Shifting Economy” at Global Competition Review’s Cartels Conference in Washington, DC.

Panelists discussed:

- Strategies for developing effective antitrust compliance programs that detect potential issues and address them in their inception.
- How to weigh competing antitrust priorities.
- Ways to effectively market the importance of antitrust compliance within the business itself.
- How an effective antitrust compliance program can factor into a cartel defense strategy.
