On June 24, Axinn partner Tiffany Rider will speak on the “Information Sharing & Benchmarking: What’s Next?” roundtable at the American Bar Association’s International Cartel Workshop, being held June 24-26 in Barcelona.

The roundtable discussion will highlight recent developments in information-sharing and benchmarking around the world, including increased scrutiny from enforcement authorities and the prevalence of pricing algorithms and other data-aggregating technology. Practitioners and enforcers from three continents will share lessons learned from recent cases and insights on how clients should navigate the shifting legal landscape.
