

Romina Corral

Attorney | New York

Practice Areas

Antitrust

Contact

T: 212.728.2216

rcorral@axinn.com

↓ Download V-Card

Romina Corral represents and advises clients on a variety of antitrust matters, focusing on U.S. and international litigation, government investigations, merger analysis, and counseling.

Prior to joining Axinn, Romina worked as an associate for firms in the United States, Belgium, France, and Romania. Most recently, she practiced complex class action litigation in antitrust and consumer protection at a New York law firm. While in law school, she interned as a law clerk at the Prosecutor's Office and the Iasi Court in Romania.

Romina graduated from Alexandru Ioan Cuza University, School of Law. She earned her LLM degrees from Fordham University School of Law, College of Europe, and Montesquieu Bordeaux IV University School of Law.

Romina is fluent in Spanish, French, and Romanian.

Education

- LLM – Fordham University School of Law (2018)
- LLM – College of Europe, Belgium (2015)

- LLM – Montesquieu Bordeaux IV University, School of Law, France (2010)
- JD – Alexandru Ioan Cuza University School of Law, Romania (2008)

Admissions

- New York
- U.S. District Court Southern District of New York
- Romania

Quotes

“The lawyers have a deep knowledge of antitrust laws.”

— Chambers USA