On October 10, Axinn partner Kail Jethmalani will speak on the “Redefining Competition and Its Impact on the Scope of Second Requests” panel at Transperfect Legal’s Antitrust Clearance and Merger Enforcement Conference in Washington, DC.

As regulators are considering factors beyond just price in their competition analysis, including unintended discriminatory effects, labor implications, customer travel distances, and impacts on innovation, panelists will discuss these elements, their effects on the HSR and Second Request processes, and practical strategies to navigate them.
