On November 14, Axinn and Slaughter & May will co-host a webinar exploring the evolving landscape of antitrust merger policy and foreign direct investment (FDI) in the wake of pivotal elections in the U.S., Europe, and around the world.

Axinn antitrust group chair Mike Keeley, along with Slaughter & May partner Jordan Ellison and JunHe LLP partner Janet Hui, will share their valuable insights and perspectives on how these political shifts may impact regulatory frameworks and business strategies.

The discussion will focus on:

- What the future holds for merger and foreign investment policy – will the interventionist trend continue?
- How can we expect policy changes to reflect recent geopolitical developments?
- How can companies navigate this regulatory environment and balance competing priorities across different jurisdictions?
