Axinn is pleased to announce that its prominent Antitrust practice has been named one of the top antitrust practices globally in Global Competition Review's 2025 GCR 100. Global Competition Review ranked the firm's New York antitrust practice as Elite, and the Washington, DC antitrust practice was ranked Highly Recommended. The firm "remains a go-to firm for the most complex competition matters," according to Global Competition Review.

The GCR 100 is a comprehensive, independent assessment of the world's top antitrust and competition practices. The survey provides a qualitative analysis of antitrust groups in jurisdictions around the world.
