On January 30, Axinn partner and chief diversity, equity & inclusion officer Leslie Overton will speak on the “Times in Transition” panel at the American Bar Association’s Antitrust Women’s Roundtable in New York.

Panelists will share best advice for navigating times of transition. Discussion topics will include switching practice areas/focus, moving from private practice to in-house or government roles, leveraging skills developed in the antitrust and consumer protection space into other areas of legal practice and beyond, and navigating gender dynamics when assuming new leadership roles.
