Axinn antitrust practice chair Mike Keeley and associate Heather Zuckert will attend CERAWeek, being held March 10-14 in Houston, Texas.

Major changes in policy, technology and geopolitics are reshaping the global energy landscape. CERAWeek, hosted by S&P Global, will examine this changing landscape through the lens of 14 different themes. Leading figures from across industry and government will convene to advance solutions on energy and climate. Through a diverse set of programs and dynamic engagements for shared learnings, CERAWeek will showcase how these themes – their underlying issues and linkages – are transforming the future of energy.
